presents

This Story
Of Their Senior Year
Lincoln Consolidated School
Ypsilanti, Michigan

LOOK TO THIS DAY

Look to this day
For it is life,
The very life of life.
In its short course
Lie all the verities
And realities of existence;
The bliss of growth,
The glory of action,
The splendor of beauty.
For yesterday is already a dream
And tomorrow is only a vision.
But every today well lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness,
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day
Such is the salutation of the dawn.

-- Sanskrit

Our Senior year has been a long day highlighted with learning, activity, and beauty.

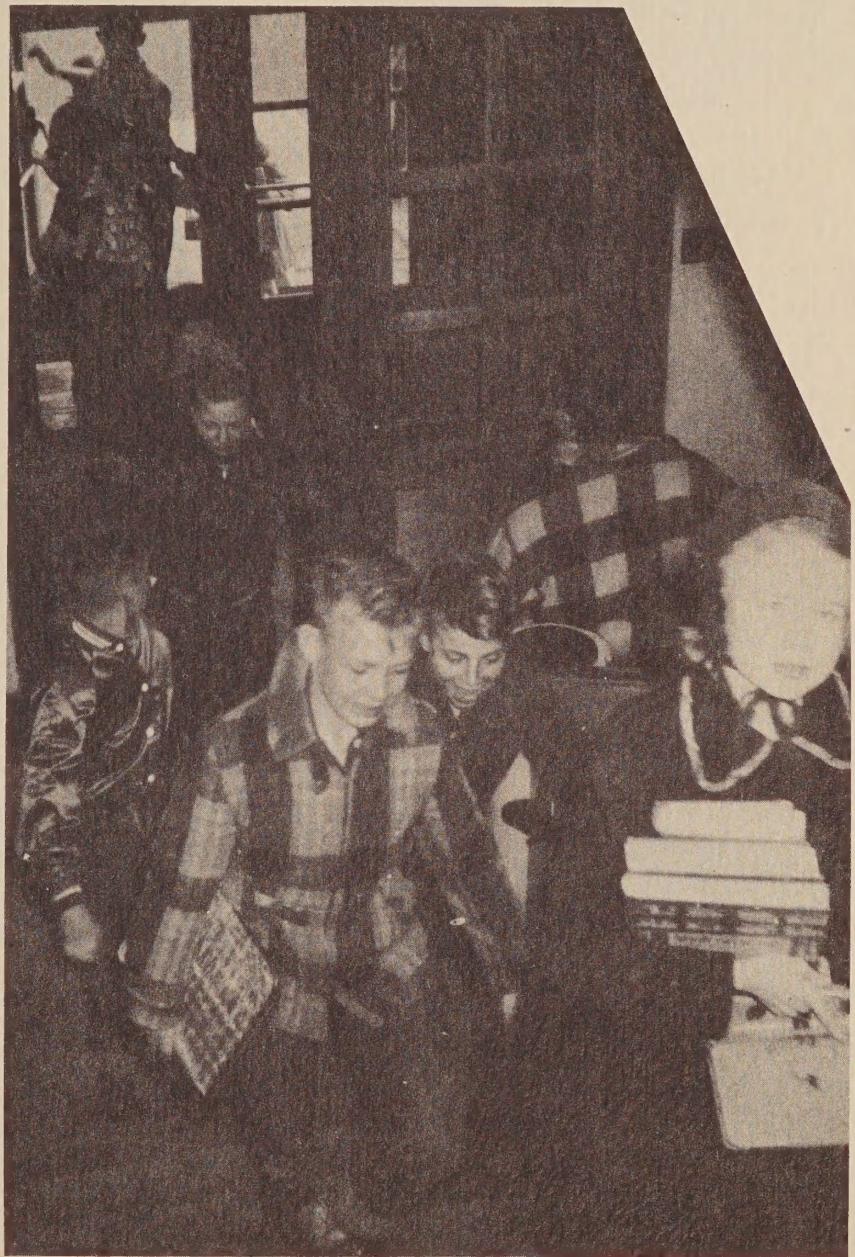

The past days are merely a memory, the days to come only a vision. Since we have found happiness and contentment during this extended day we can enjoy pleasant memories of our yesterdays, and be inspired to live useful lives in the days to come.

A record of our high school days will be held valuable in the future. As the story unfolds we find ourselves engaged in numerous activities which occupy much of our limited time.

Through the coming years we will hold close to our hearts the cherished memories of our school life, our life with all its trials and tribulations.

Our story closes, but the knowledge and experiences we have enjoyed together in class fellowship will enhance our lives forever.

A DAY, A YEAR BEGINS...

LEADERS OF ACTION

M. Gruezke, Treasurer
L. Van Hoy, Secretary
B. Stewart, Vice-pres.
D. Chumbley, President

Graduating means many class meetings assisted by Mr. Burras and Mr. Coates.

Attentive Seniors listen as the scoop is given on announcements and name cards.

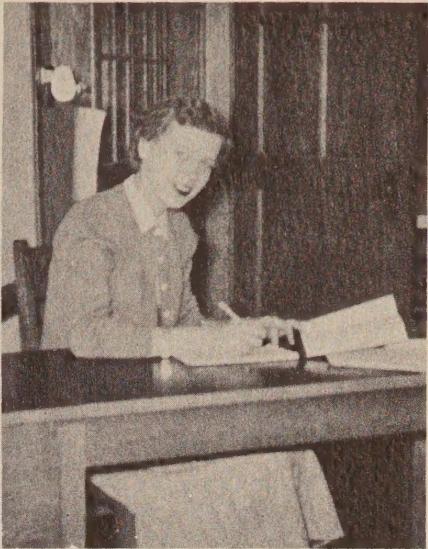

The Seniors began the year with a dinner for their parents and teachers, followed by entertainment and a discussion of teenage problems.

Bill Kline's Orchestra furnished the music for the Holiday Ball with decorations, refreshments, and music contributing to make the dance a big event of the year.

SENIOR STARS

Every senior was active in school events, but a few were outstanding. Marilyn was chosen as D.A.R. winner. We were well represented in Council with Dale and Marie as officers and Eleanor and Don C. as representatives. Marie and Joan L. pantomiming Shotgun Boogie, gave us a laugh, while Jim H. and Betty played a serious number in the Talent Show.

The honor of D.A.R. Pilgrim went this year to Marilyn G.

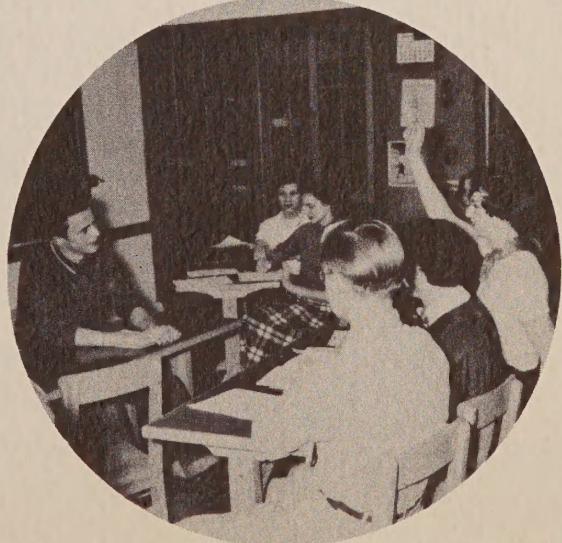

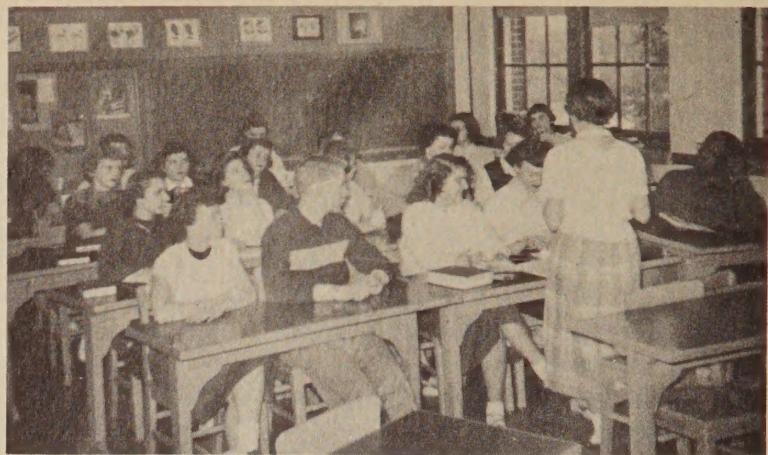

Joan L. and Marie J. provide a highly entertaining spot in the talent show.

Dale M., Don C., Marie J. and Eleanor K. form the Senior bloc in Student Council.

Betty B. pounds the keyboard to accompany Jim H. with his licorice stick.

Lois Van Hoy . . . . Assistant

STORY COMPILERS

During the last two weeks that the annual was being compiled, things became quite hectic. Remember the Deadline was our motto. Like our cover? Don Reeves designed it while the art and lay-out committees slaved over the final draft. Click! That was just Dale disturbing classes with his camera. The writers wore their pencils to stubs writing copy. The budget was finally balanced and the typists finished after straining their eyes and wearing out the typewriters. The subscription committee was responsible for selling our product — and here it is.

LINCOLN HIGHLIGHTS

Recently the Lincoln Highlights has shown vast improvements. It looks like a real newspaper since it has been linotyped. New and more interesting features have been added. To make the school year start more smoothly each new editor now takes office in the middle of the year.

Instigators of Growth

Seniors participated in many activities classified as "arts." Intellectual pursuits dealing with Shakespeare, creative skills, and home making.

Commercial courses improved efficiency in typing, book-keeping, shorthand, and letter writing.

Students of physics studied the laws of nature, and some received a better understanding of algebra and trig in advanced math.

In study hall a new policy was partially inaugurated, talking without permission.

Some class members established reputations, good and bad. Remember — Mr. Coates throwing erasers at Don Reeves to awaken him...the confusing questions Larry asked student teachers...How the band sounded when Jim H. tried to direct ...The wonderful marks Iris got in shorthand...The noise Alma and Nadine didn't make. Those involved questions Jim B. stumped the teachers with...Buddy throwing paper wads at members of the opposite sex...Shirley and Don quietly talking between classes...Martin pestering Norma in civics...The way Eleanor hemmed and hawed for five minutes, finally admitting she didn't know what the question was?

*GIRLS ENSEMBLE-Front Row: Marilyn G., Marie J., Betty B., Bev S., Norma J., Donna W., Lois V.
Jenny P. not present.*

The Beauty of Music

Miss Averill directs the chorus consisting of 98 members. They have participated in various programs and festivals during the year.

The small but spirited band played an important part in the school program for '51-'52.

Enriches Our School Life

Mr. Elwell worked hard to balance the orchestra in spite of its size.

Inner Willy examines Mike's peculiar feet;
Willy makes a shrewd deal for the prom.

Willy's aunts are perturbed about
Willy's strange behavior.

ACT WELL YOUR PART

The Inner Willy concerned a henpecked nephew who was dominated by three old aunts, vexed by an inner man, and confronted with girls.

The success was due to the fine acting of the cast and the aid of the directors, Miss Rahm and B. Butcher.

The cast included: E. Dexter-A. Olga, E. Kirk-A. Hester, J. Helzerman-A. Louise, D. Minick-Willy, B. Stewart-Inner Willy, E. Leonard-Trudy, M. Jarvis-Janet, D. Williams-Carol, L. Van Hoy-Marybelle, D. McCash-Stanley, J. Harwood-Mike.

Joanne skeptically watches the transformation--amazing how make-up ages people--Slap on the grease paint--Foot-lights on, dim the house lights--Everything is settled; Carol goes with Willy--Dale and Earilyn get the works.

"Remember the codliver oil!" Aunt Louise discovers the b.v.d.'s. Inner Willy referees. Willy reluctantly dates Marybelle. Inner Willy advises, "Scoot over, Willy." The twins draw straws. Inner Willy persists in dangling his feet. Upper right, the Junior Plays---"A Shot in the Dark" and "City Slicker and Our Nell." "The Pampered Darling" is not shown.

First Row: Zauner, Bischoff, Hudgens, Schrock, Odum, Reeves, McMeekin.

Third Row: Mr. Moffett, Dexter, Armstrong, Orrison, Kruger, McCash, Smith, Woods, Gross, Mr. Redd.

Action Under The Lights

The football season was ushered in by many new facilities--lighted field dedicated to the Veterans of Lincoln, a portion of the garage has yielded space for a dressing room and an equipment storage place for members of the various sport activities. Although the team did not chalk up any outstanding victories, the experience increased standings for future games.

Lincoln initiated its lighted football field in a game with Roosevelt.

BASEBALL AND TRACK

ADD COLOR

TO SPRING

Five senior boys participated in this year's spring sports, two in baseball and three in track. Buhl, as pitcher, had a successful season as did third baseman, Jim Harwood.

In track, Bill Wilson and Dick Sekmistrz entered the high jump, broad jump, dashes, and relays. Bob Colby went out for the mile run, half mile run, and relays.

Though tennis was resumed this spring, no seniors took part in the sport.

Basketball Games Thrill

Lincoln ended the season with a total of five games won out of thirteen played. The RailSplitters started the season with a six game losing streak, but showed much improvement in the Dundee game by bringing our losing score to 35-30. From then on we started winning.

Mr. Moffett attributed the improvement to more spirit and desire on the part of the players and student body. Almost every game was filled with suspense and excitement. The cheerleaders inspired each crowd with a desire to win.

We should have no fear of future years of basketball with the able reserve team of this year to take the seniors' places. The reserves too, won five games and Dick Draper was their high point man.

L. H. S. RAH! RAH! RAH! — That's the way, fellas—and thus the cheering block lent its color and voice to the games — Come on let's go, let's win—a victory hangs in the basket.

BILL WILSON

JIM HARWOOD

THE TEAM AND COACH

The Cheering Crowds

The total individual scores for the season were: Flower 99, Wilson 69, Smith 114, Mitchell 78, Armstrong 100, Adiska 52, and Kruger 21.

The games played and resulting scores were:

Lincoln 27 - Alumni 35	Lincoln 44 - Milan 31
Lincoln 38 - U. High 46	Lincoln 36 - Flat Rock 44
Lincoln 41 - Saline 50	Lincoln 39 - Roosevelt 25
Lincoln 31 - Milan 46	Lincoln 42 - U. High 40
Lincoln 41 - Edison 61	Lincoln 47 - Saline 39
Lincoln 30 - Dundee 35	Lincoln 21 - Dundee 22
Lincoln 36 - Chelsea 32

In the tournaments, Lincoln defeated Dexter 53 - 49 and then was downed by St. Thomas 45-37.

The tense crowd inspires Bob A. to raise the score — Bob A., Buhl F., Bill W., display victorious grins after a hard fought game — Careful refereeing and close guarding produce an exciting game.

HOMECOMING

The memorial football field and lights were first used for the homecoming game with Roosevelt. During the half-time the queen, Carol Burgar, was crowned, and she and her court circled the field riding in convertibles.

In the picture to the left, the regal queen is pictured at upper center with her court which includes Marilyn Gruezke, Carol Day, Joan Moore, Donna Laflin (crown bearer), Teresa Stefina, Patsy Borgstadt, and Joan Laflin. Pearl Wilson, not in the picture was also in the court.

The Senior class sponsored the Homecoming Dance following the game. Carol Burgar lead the grand march which opened the dancing for the evening.

CHEERLEADERS

Lincoln is very proud of its cheerleaders and grateful to Mr. Kendrick for working out many new cheers with them. Even though the team did lose a few games, the student body's pep and enthusiasm never waned. The squad included Marie Jarvis, Agnes Allen, Pearl Wilson, Janet Shrock, Shirley Sampier, Donna Berry, Jeanette Burgar, and Teresa Stefina. Joan Moore was also a member of the squad for the first part of the year.

DONNA WILLIAMS 'WILLIE'

WILLIAM WILSON 'BILL'

Last, but not least in our memories is Bill. Bill is the all around athlete, having been captain of every sport. Bill doesn't know what he'll do yet.

Seniors are a serious bunch! Remember the day Mr. Shiraef talked to the class about his adventures behind the iron curtain? And look aren't the boys in the back room studying hard?

The "mighty" seniors eat and sleep like — well, like people. You might know Tom Huntley would have his mouth full!

Recall how our coats dragged the floor in those second floor lockers? At first glance Marie looks like a giantess (female giant.)

Jim H. is playing reveille, but those sleeping beauties don't seem to hear. (Or is that a snap for the city morgue?)

We're ashamed to admit there are some who indulge in comic books. Got caught red-handed and open-mouthed this time didn't you, Donna?

Who is M. J. "gunning for" in that snap from the talent show?

It looks like intermission or "refleshment" time at the Holiday Hop while a couple underclassmen look on warily.

The class of '52 like all normal classes, has been the victim of the love bug.

Marie proudly displays that one day she will be a sailorette. Marilyn and Joanne proudly display alumni class rings. Betty and Jon have interests from other schools. Bob A. and Joan M. are our class victims.

After the senior play Dale was seen wearing lipstick. He said it was part of his theatrical make-up, but we wonder—! Norma isn't really vicious; Don is quite big enough to protect himself.

The gleaming Ipana smiles belong to Donnajean and Joan L. The other face does not resemble any senior.

Even with our short lunch hour, we always found time to visit between bites. The boys seem to be enjoying themselves, too!

Just like Jenny — doesn't know whether she's coming or going. Careful girls, don't lean out too far! Tom always looks happy — even with our dear departed Gene B.

Miss Rahm's quite a heavy drinker—pop, that is. Art doesn't seem very interesting to these boys; perhaps they are thinking of other "modern" art. Looks like Alma's waiting for someone. Here's Bobby playing "Lone Ranger" on his tractor since he can not afford a horse.

A dazzling smile from our class president at the Holiday Ball. The Seniors, in a huddle, look at pictures - a favorite pastime. "Oh, she didn't really!" says Norm over a pile of books. Tom looks happy - maybe he received an A. They say the only time you will really see these seniors with their mouths closed is when they are eating. Oh, oh, don't tell me that's Rosetta snitching a sandwich. Even busy seniors have hobbies: Dale's, photography; the senior girls, singing; Bills' sports; Joanne H. and Joan M. have their hobbies too...! What's this, our boys with hats? Must be a fashion show. "You wouldn't dare!" says Bill C. It's plain to see that the class of "52" has been bubbling over with enthusiasm and activities.
